Mr. Stolper,

This firm has already advised you that it is not authorized to accept service of any process on behalf of our clients, and will not do so. Service of process on our clients can only be properly effected through the Hague Service Convention. We do appreciate, however, your courtesy copy.

Moreover, we have also advised you that our clients would expressly contest personal jurisdiction in this matter which does not exist over our clients in New York. You should be guided accordingly, and notify the Court of the foregoing.
